

Ecological Session Agenda
DRAFT - 4/17/99

Tuesday, April 20th – AM

9:30 – 10:15 am	Plenary	Environmental Issues and the South-North Water Transfer Scheme in China	Changming LIU
-----------------	---------	---	---------------

Adaptive Management: A Promising Barry D. Gold
Approach for Large River Systems

Tuesday, April 20th - PM

1.30 - 3.30pm -	Session I:	-- Water Resources Development and Utilization in the Yangtze Valley	Mingguang ZHANG
		-- South Florida Ecosystem Restoration	Hanley K. Smith
		-- Water and Soil Erosion and their Control Measures in China	Zhongheng NIU
		-- Watershed Restoration Efforts in Oregon	John D. Miller

3.30 - 4.00pm - BREAK

4.00 - 6.00pm -	Session II:	-- Flood Prone Areas and their Management on the Lower Reach of the Yellow River	Xiubin LI
		-- Chesapeake Bay Program	Peter Marx
		-- Managing Sustainable Use of Land and Water under Dry Sub-humid Climate
		-- Controlled Flooding of the Colorado River and Adaptive Management	Theodore S. Melis

Wednesday, April 21st - AM

8.00 - 10.00am -	Session III:	-- Groundwater Resources Exploitation in China	Lierong LIE
		-- The USGS NAWQA Program: An Ecological Perspective	Mark D. Munn
		-- Conservation and Research on Waterfowl and their Habitats in China	GuoZong CHU
		-- Function, Value and Vulnerability of Wetland Habitat	Virginia Burkett

10.00 - 10.30am - BREAK

10.30 – Noon	Session IV:	-- Discussion of Opportunities for Future Collaboration -- Summary and Conclusion
--------------	-------------	--